this morning from St. Thomas, has thrown the whole city into a state of great excitement. By this time, of course, the ows of the capture of Messrs. Slidell and Meson, with their secretaries, is old, but we have heard nothing of it till this ning. The British Consul was kind enough to read affair from the officer in charge of the mails on board the Trent. That gentleman's version of the affair is, briefly, that the steamer Trent left Havana on the 7th instant. them, which presently fired a round shot across the flag and continued on her way; shortly afterwards a ber, upon which she hove to. The stranger showed no flag until about the time the shell was fired, and it was then discovered that she rines, under command of a lieutenant, came alongside the Trent, and the officer, on boarding her, demanded a ist of her passengers, which the captain refused. The ormer then stated that he had positive knowledge that lessrs. Mason and Slidell, with their secretaries, Messrs stis and McFarland, were on board; that he had orders arrest them, and, if necessary, use force. The party take the captain of the Trent, but for some reason ective ways. The whole affair occupied but a few are apparently rejoiced at the event; the former because at may bring about an immediate war with Great Bri-tain, which will relieve the blockade of Southern ports, and the latter because they hope "the Yankees will be

The evening bulletin of the Diacio de la Marina of to-day publishes a different account, which I enclose. It states that the families of the prisoners were also taken on board the San Jacinto, while the despatch to the liritish Consul says they proceeded to England in the steamer La Plata, in which also went a British officer, with deatches to his government detailing this curious affair.

The Mexican expedition has not yet sailed but I am ncepcion and Lealtad, which were to have left St. within a day or two. If Miramon were on board, as some have suspected, we should have learned it by the English steamer. On last Tuesday the troops intended for the expedition, together with some ten thousand more of the garrison here, were reviewed by the Captain eneral on the Paseo de Isabel II. About sixteen thou-nd men of all arms were on the ground, and made a ery fine display. The troops for Mexico wore their ght blue cotton uniforms, with straw hats, and all were full marching order, with knapsacks, blankets, &c., trapped around them. The other troops were in full ala dress—snow white linen coats and pants, black cress elts, and a small, light, serviceable shako, which I believe is peculiar to the Spanish army. It was certainly a plendid body of men, better in appearance and discipline than anything I expected to find. The only thing I noshich I did not like was the condition of the arms, which were not as bright and near looking as they might have been. The men march very rapidly, and carry their muskets in a manner different from what we are accomfortably. While speaking of these matters I may as ention a rumor which prevailed here some days ago in certain circles, which was that if the United tes were to gain some very decided advantage over the South, a victory which would promise success to the thern arms, the Mexican expedition would be abandoned by Spain. No more idle rumor could exist.

We have had news of the arrival at Sisal of a Spanish vessel-of-war, tendering Spanish aid to the government I rather incline to the belief that the men and money will Cruz. I have the authority of the Diario de la Marina for saying that the same offer was made by Spain to Yucatan some sixteen or eighteen years ago. But then and now are different times, and people might think such an offer now as rather suspicious perhaps. On the other hand, I have been told that the indignation and alarm of the South American people increase every day, and that zuelans to assist Mexico by every possible means to resist the Spaniards. This may possibly be true, but I do not choose to vouch for it without seeing the docu-

The weather now is delightful, and the health of Havana perfectly good. The Opera at the Villanueva is a failure; but when Muzio & Co. get into working order I shall have the pleasure of knowing no such word. I found Chiarini's circus quite an elegant one, very well patronized, and deservedly so. Every one, from the highest to the lowest, goes there, and so do l.

P. S.-I had almost forgotten to mention that the steamer Santiago de Cuba is outside the harbor, watching, it is said, three or four suspected vessels now at anchor here. These vessels carry the English flag, and have cleared for Northern ports; but the supposition is that they are destined for some of the blockaded ports of the South.

Newspaper Accounts.

[Translated from the Diario de la Martina, Nov. 22, for the New York Hearth.]

A respectable and reliable gentlement has communicated to us the following information, the importance of which we leave to the appreciation of our readers. In the British steamer Trent, which left this port on the 8th inst., Mesers. Mason and Slidell, Commissioners of the 8outhern confederacy, took passage, with many other passengers. Several days after her departure she was overtaken by an Anglo American ship-of-war, which we suppose to have been the San Jacinto, and which fired two balls at her. The Trent stopped on this unfriendly demonstration, wheren two beats left the American steamer, with armed men, muskets and bayonets, and, having boarded the Trent, they took the two Commissioners, Mosars. Slidel and Mason, by force, despite of the energeste protests of the captain. We will not at present say another word on this subject, which is certainly destined to create great noise in Europe and America.

We are convinced of its correctness, but will nevertheless await its confirmation and details.

Since writing the above we are able to lay before our readers a semicont.

We are convinced of its correctness, but will nevertheless await its confirmation and details.

Since writing the above we are able to lay before our readers a semi-official account of the affair on beard the steamer Trent, which is as follows:—

On the 8th linst, at one o'clock in the afternoon, five miles to the north of Cayo Coo, the American corvette San Jacinto, of eighteen guns, espien the British steamer Trent, which she stopped by Bring two guns, one without a ball and afterwards one with ball the Trent stopped her engines and was bearded by two bears, from which of the United States who were passengers.

The captain of the Frent resistent the demand. The officer threatened force. The agent of the admiralty and the captain proteated against this out got. The officer sent for two more armed boats and coupled the Trent, in a military way, repeating his formed for these definity. The captain and the agent repeated the protect, and the parties demanded voluntarily presence the medices. They were Messes Stated and Mason, with their secretaries and families who, at half past three or dock were taken on board the San Jacinto in a universe beat.

The San Jacinto then proceed in the channel of Santaren, and the frent continued the second of the interest, and the protect was day and the protect was day and the protect of the protect was day and the protect of the protect of the protect was day and the protect of the protect

THE SLAVE TRADE.

Captain Gordon, of the Slave Ship Brie, Sentenced to be Hung on the 7th of February.

Before Hon. Judge Shipman.

Nov. 30 — The United States vs. Nathaniel Gordon.—This was a motion in arrest of judgment and for a new trial.

OPINION OF THE COURT.

At the sitting of the Court this morning Judge Shipman

shal. It is as follows:

The following is the death warrant:

The President of the United States of America to the Marshal of the United States for the Southern District of New York;

Whereas, at the Circuit Court of the United States for the Second Circuit, held in and for the Southern District of New York, at the city of New York, on the third Monday of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, and continued by adjournments to the eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, Nathaniel Gordon was, on the day last aforeaid, in due form of law, convited of forcibly confining and detaining, on the eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty, on waters within the admirally and maritime jurisdiction of the States, within the jurisdiction of the said court, and out of the limits of any State or district, on board a certain ship called. Eric, owned wholly or in part or navigated for or in behalf of a citizen or clitzens of the United States, certain negroes not held to service by the laws of either of the States or Territories of the United States, certain negroes not held to service by the laws of either of the States or Territories of the Cunted States, certain negroes not held to service by the laws of either of the said crime, a citizen of the United States, and the said Southern district of New York, being the district where the said Nathaniel Gordon was apprehended, and tato which he was first brought; And whereas, at the said Circuit Court, held as aforeasid, and the hirritish day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, at the said Circuit Court of the United States, held as aforeasid, judgment was given in the said court, that the said Nathaniel Gordon was adjudged a pirate; and whereas, on the thirtieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, at the said Circuit Court, the said Nathaniel Gordon, convicted as a (associated with Judge Nelson) proceeded to deliver the following opinion and sentence in the case of Captain Fordon, convicted of serving on board the slaver Erie:— We have carefully considered the points submitted to trial, and the arguments of counsel theroon. In disposing of these motions we do not deem it important to discuss any exceptions taken to the form of the indictment, except such as apply to the first and third counts, inasmuch as it was upon these two counts that we put the case to the jury. If either one of these counts is good, it is smileient to support the verdict. The only objection taken to the form of the first and third counts is that they do not aver, in the precise words of the statute, the confidence of the negroes as "not held to service by the laws." ditions of the negroes as "not held to service by the laws of either of the States or Territories of the United States" at the time of the commission of the offence—the language of the indictment being "not having been held to service, &c." It is argued that if the defendant had been able to prove that they had been once held to service at some time prior to the commission of the offence, this averment would have been entitled to an acquital; but this, we think, only prove that the language of the indictment in this particular is more comprehensive than was never the commission of the indictment in this particular is more comprehensive than was never the commission of the commission of the indictment in this particular is more comprehensive than was never the commission of the commission

The District Attorney then handed the death warrant to the Judge, who signed it and delivered it to the Marshal. It is as follows:

The following is the death warrant:

The President of the United States of America to the Marshal of the United States for the Southern District of New York:

Affairs in Westchester County, N. Y.

KATONAS, Nov. 29, 1861.
The Bedford Farmers' Club meet this afternoon, assisted by Professor Mapes and others from a distance, to discuss the expediency of devoting their dairies to cheese making, on account of the high charge on milk sent by the Harlem treated of the perennial Peruvian cotton tree, as adapted to Northern cultivation, is to better here. The proceeds of the lecture will be divided among the aid associations o the town, which have organized reading circles and evening entertainments for the benefit of the soldiers.

Mr. Jay has to-day forwarded two boxes of clothing from the Katonah Association to Mr. Olmstead, of the Na-tional Sanitary Commission at Washington, and one box of books and magazines to the hospital at Fortress Mon-roe, the Surgeon having intimated that reading matter for the convalencents would be most acceptable.
